

THIRD JOHN

- A. ¹The elder
 - B. To the beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth
- 1A. ²Beloved, I pray that with respect to all things you may prosper and be healthy, just as your soul is prospering
- 1B. ³For I rejoiced greatly while brothers were coming and testifying concerning your truth— how you are walking in the truth
 - 2B. ⁴I have no joy greater than these things— that I may be hearing-of my children walking in the truth
- 2A. ⁵Beloved, you are doing a faithful thing— whatever you may accomplish— for the brothers (and this, for strangers!) ⁶who testified concerning your love before the church
- 1B. As to whom you will do well, having sent-them-forward worthily of God
 - 1C. ⁷For they went out for the Name, taking nothing from the Gentiles
 - 2C. ⁸Therefore we ought to be supporting such ones, in order that we may be fellow-workers for the truth
- 3A. ⁹I wrote something to the church, but Diotrephes, the one loving-to-be-first among them, is not accepting us. ¹⁰For this reason, if I come, I will call-to-mind his deeds which he is doing—
- 1B. Talking-nonsense-about us with malicious words
 - 2B. And not being content with these things, neither is he himself accepting the brothers
 - 3B. And he is forbidding and putting-out of the church the ones wanting to do so
 - 4B. ¹¹Beloved, do not be imitating the evil, but the good
 - 1C. The one doing-good is from God
 - 2C. The one doing-evil has not seen God
- 4A. ¹²*With regard to* Demetrius, he has been attested by everyone, and by the truth itself
- 1B. And we also are testifying, and you know that our testimony is true
- A. ¹³I had many things to write to you, but I do not wish to write to you with ink and pen. ¹⁴But I hope to see you at-once, and we will speak mouth to mouth
 - B. Peace to you
 - C. The friends greet you
 - D. Greet the friends by name
